People with HIV may not have an undetectable viral load by choice or circumstances outside of their control:

- Avoid judgements about viral load
- Recognize barriers to care
- Put personal health first
- Recognize that all people with HIV have prevention options
- Use U=U as a public health argument for universal access

• U=U offers hope and a new surge of activism.